

UCLA Disability Studies International Conference 13-14 April 2017

invites you to the keynote address of

DJ KURS,

Artistic Director for Deaf West Theatre

DEAF WEST THEATRE'S SPRING AWAKENING:

HOW ASL MUSICALS ARE STRETCHING THE BOUNDARIES OF THE MUSICAL

Thursday, April 13, 2017, 8pm

UCLA Herb Alpert School of Music Schoenberg Hall

This event is free and open to the public

This event will be audio described, real-time captioned, and ASL translated

The evening will include a discussion with the creative team and cast members from the Tony nominated Spring Awakening, including performances by cast members, assisted by UCLA performers.

Let know us you're attending!

Click on this link to RSVP <http://tinyurl.com/uclaspectacle>

Self-pay parking is available for $12 in Structure 2

Join us at the preceding

UCLA Disability Studies 10th Anniversary Reception

Thursday, April 13, 2017, 6:30pm

Schoenberg Hall Patio

This event was made possible through the generous support of the UCLA Herb Alpert School of Music Department of Musicology, Robert U. Nelson Fund, Tarjan Center at UCLA, and Deaf West Theatre

UCLA College Undergraduate Education Initiatives

Office of the Executive Vice Chancellor & Provost

UCLA Interdisciplinary & Cross Campus Affairs

UCLA Herb Alpert School of Music Department of Musicology

UCLA College Humanities

NEIKIRK Endowment

UCLA OVCR Office of the Vice Chancellor for Research

UCLA College Social Sciences

UCLA Student Affairs

UCLA Herb Alpert School of Music

UCLA GRADUATE DIVISION

UCLA Equity, Diversity and Inclusion

UCLA Luskin

UCLA DEPARTMENT OF English

<http://spectacle.disabilitystudies.ucla.edu/>